Task 3

Questions 11-15

Read about Owen Jones. For questions 11-15, complete the form with one word in each gap. Write the correct answer only here in this exam booklet. There is an example at the beginning (0).

Owen Jones – creator of terror

The next time you are scared during a horror movie, listen to the music – it may be the work of Owen Jones.

I met Owen in his studio in London. There is a synthesizer in the middle of the room and lots of his paintings on the wall. "I love painting," he says. "I often get ideas for my music when I paint."

Owen comes from Wales, and the Welsh are known for their love of music. His parents sang in their local choir in Swansea. "My Mum took me to choir practice there even when I was a baby. When I go back to my home town, I always go to listen to the choir."

Owen won a piano competition at the age of 11. "I really wanted to be a musician. It was my dream." But he badly injured his right hand during a rugby match. "It was never the same again. My school mates called me "Lefty" because I had to do everything with my left hand for some time."

The injury ended his dream to be a concert pianist. "So I started composing. I composed for the school orchestra. Then I won a scholarship to the Academy of Music."

His first success as a composer was the music for a BBC documentary. "Then an English film director in Hollywood asked me to write the music for a film. I now do it for a living and it's great fun."
