

Meeting with the representatives of the University College Arteveldehogeschool Ghent

On Monday, 7 January 2013, National centre for external evaluation of education hosted a meeting with representatives of Belgian university in Ghent “University College Arteveldehogeschool Ghent”.

The goal of the gathering was an exchange of experience and identification of collaboration areas.

Representatives Karolien Frederickx and Charlotte Soenen presented Belgian early childhood education and care system, organization and history of the University as well as study programmes concerning early childhood education and care available at the University College Arteveldehogeschool Ghent. Furthermore, they presented national and international projects of the University with the emphasis on the area of early childhood education and care.

Director Goran Sirovatka and deputy director Sc.D. Jasmina Muraja presented assignments and projects of the National centre for external evaluation of education at national and international level. Sandra Antulić presented self-evaluation projects with special emphasis on the self-evaluation of early childhood education and care project, which has been implemented at the national level since the beginning of the current school year.

The presentation was followed by the discussion on theory and practice in early childhood education and care in the Republic of Croatia, where significant contribution was made by professor Edita Slunjski, Ph.D. and professor Maja Ljubetić, Ph.D. The discussion included elements of theory in early childhood education and care as well as contemporary concepts in early childhood education and care practice as well as the comparison of Croatian and Belgian system.

The meeting concluded with an identification of mutual interests and collaboration areas and with the confirmation of further exchange of knowledge and experience.

Meeting programme is set out below.

Zagreb, 8.01.2013.
